

United Way of Southwest Colorado 2005 Campaign Award Winners

| Award  | 2005 Winner  |
|---|---|
| Spirit Award, Business  | First National Bank   |
| Spirit Award, Individual  | Jeannie Bennett, LPEA   |
| Silent Hero Award, Business                                     | BP, Coldwell Banker, Wells Fargo Bank,JC Penney                       |
| Silent Hero Award, Individual                                   | Sarah Jacobson, La Plata County   |
| Board President's Award   | Scott Thompson, BP  |
| Highest Percent of Participation, Small Business                | La Plata Youth Services, Sexual Assault Services Organization             |
| Highest Percent of Participation, Large Business                | JC Penney   |
| Highest Per Capita Gift   | LPEA  |
| Highest Average Gift  | Dawes and Harriss, P.C.   |
| Highest Percentage Increase                                     | Valley-Wide Health Systems/Durango Primary Care                           |
| Pace Setter Awards  | Wal-Mart, UPS, City Market North, City Market South, XTO Energy           |
| Banking Industry Challenge                                      | First National Bank   |
| First National Bank's Sip to Soup-port Gumbo Cookoff Fundraiser | Professional – Red SnapperAmateur – Kelsey Partridge and Sonya Meador |
| Outstanding Partner Agency                                      | Southwest Conservation Corps  |
| Jim Child Excellence Award                                      | Wayne Bedor   |
| Combined Federal Campaign Awards                         |   |
| Highest Average Gift  | Durango Post Office   |
| Highest Percent of Participation                                | Mesa Verde National Park  |
| Highest Percentage Increase                                     | Durango Post Office   |
| Leadership Awards   | Brad Bartel   |
| Special Recognition   | Erin Youngblood   |